to participate in the Pepperell 4th of July Parade. Our only “rule” is that ALL participants must be respectful to the 4th of July Theme. If your entry is considered by 4th of July Committee members to be disrespectful or inappropriate for this family oriented event we reserve the right to remove your entry.

General Instructions

- All floats must be lined up by 11:45am at the parade staging area.
- Eliminate turning floats and vehicles around – PLEASE enter staging area from back end; At Town Hall take Park Street, left onto Heald Street then left onto Willow Street and left onto Main Street into line position. (basically going around the block)
- All gasoline driven units should...
 - Have a full tank of gas, Tires at proper pressure, Check radiators and batteries for water, Windows clean for good vision
 - Keys must be left in vehicle if driver needs to leave staging area.
 - All drivers must be in units by 12:10pm
- All bands/units that need to, may leave their personal vehicles at the reserved parking area at the VFW parking lot. This is where the Buses will be to drive bands to the parade staging area at Town Hall. Last bus leaves the VFW at 12:10.
- Remember ALL ROADS leading to staging area will be closed early.
- At the end of the parade police will direct floats to the disbanding area, follow directions to avoid confusion.
- Restrooms will be open at Town Hall from 10:00am – 12:00pm
- Water and suntan lotion are good to have, waiting time is approx. ½ hour due to checking-in and lining up floats, road closing, etc.
- In the past floats or participants toss candy into the crowd, PLEASE be aware that children can become distracted by the candy and run out in front of floats. Drivers – keep your eyes out for kids.
 - Do not stop along the parade route to visit with family and friends. This causes a back up/delay.
 - All participants, will stay in their unit position. If you have a question or concern about your position contact the Parade Coordinator prior to the event.

UNIT POSITIONS

It is imperative that ALL units / floats stay in their pre-designated parade position. Follow your queue to march from STAFF on hand. There are edict, sound, and safety reasons for the line-up order. Parade position numbers will be given to you approx. 3-5 days prior to the event.

Pepperell 4th of July Committee will have members on hand to assist all parade participants. Members will be wearing “staff” shirts. Feel free to contact the Committee if you have any special needs, questions, or concerns prior to the day of event Contact Danielle Pegram at (301) 956-4104.

By sending in this entry form, you are agreeing to all the information provided above.
